

Stories from the region

In our ongoing tribute to regional doctors and medical students going about their education, careers and lives under extremely difficult circumstances and often with lack of personal safety, we salute the second female medical graduate in the Dizaye family in Erbil Iraq - Saya Dizaye pictured with her father, Professor Kawa Dizaye at the same university he graduated from, Hawler University.

We earlier featured older sister Sanaa and her father at her graduation in 2014:

